Board of Education

President . . . . .	N.H. Brennan
Treasurer . . . . .	Fred Knoll
Secretary . . . . .	C.C. Hoover
Trustee . . . . .	Howard A. Smith
Trustee . . . . .	Alfred Oswald

Members of the Board of Education are elected by school voters for terms of three years. Responsibility rests with the Board of Education for determining all school policy, approving the selection of all staff members, the courses to be taught, and the instructional materials to be used. The Board adopts and administers the annual budget. Many hours are spent by each member performing the duties for which he is elected.

We, the students of Capac Community High School, wish to express to the Board of Education our appreciation for all they have done to aid us in our school careers. We realize that there are many things which are their concern of which we may have little or no knowledge. For their interest and their efforts in our school welfare we wish to thank them.

F.H.A

The Future Homemakers Chapter, with Miss Hoyt as sponsor, has found much enjoyment in the activities of this year. On October 24th, United Nations Day, we served the entire student body and faculty to cookies and punch. Our cookies were made from foreign recipes. We specialized in making table decorations for special days throughout the year. Other activities included, serving a dinner to Agriculture teachers from the district, making centerpieces for Founder's Day Dinner, and an assembly program.

The F.F.A. Chapter, under the direction of Mr. Stewart, has been active this year. Some of their projects have been--Fair, starring Casey Clark, Minstrel Show, Farmers Week, and seeing a hockey game. Ed. Boadway and Robert Meirs attended the National Convention in Kansas City.

The Capac High School Band is an all-high school group this year. They are a busy group winter and summer as they have accepted invitations to perform at ball games, centennial celebrations, state fair, football games, concerts and programs at home and away. They high-lighted their year by inaugurating an Area Massed Band Festival.

Junior Band

Sr. Hi Girls' Glee Club

Enjoying the new music room, the vocal group gives forth with 42 voices this year. Our high-lights of the year have been a United Nations' Day assembly -- the first assembly program in our new school --, P.T.A. supper and program, Christmas concert, school dedication, Spring Concert, District Glee Club and Ensemble Festival, Radio Broadcast, and Blue Water Festival held in Sarnia.

Jr. Hi Glee Club

We are glad to see some fellows unafraid to claim that they enjoy singing. They are looking forward to a high school boys' group for next year.

A mixed quintet provided special music for the M.M.P.A. dinner this year and a mixed sextet was invited to do a special number at a Singspiration service in Imlay City.

The glee club also took part in the spring concert.

STYLE AT STATE FAIR

Nancy Carr and Barbara Scott modeled garments which they made in Homemaking Class at school last year, at the State Fair Jan. 31, at 7 o'clock.

Nancy styled a suit and Barbara a weed dress. The garments were forty minutes and 4-1/2 hours in Michigan. The girls left Capac in the morning and arrived in Detroit for the afternoon practice. They had some time to style show. After the colliseum

"Little Chiefs" Show Scoring Punch

Fans at the Capac-Brown City football game Friday night enjoyed a double-header when the junior high boys played the Little Chiefs.

Capac's Marching Band

The Capac High School Marching Band has been invited by the Detroit Football Company, owners of the famous Detroit Lions, to be guests at a home game of the team this fall.

Under the direction of Coach Jo An Cline, the band will participate in a dedication ceremony at Briggs Stadium, December 2, in connection with the World Championship 1953, and a half-time radio broadcast by T. V. Carr.

Cheerleaders

There are fourteen cheerleaders, making three teams. This year we have a new team from the Junior High. We appreciate the co-operation of the student body in helping us cheer the teams along during a game.

Girls' Basketball

This year we say farewell to seven team-mates who leave us thru graduation. They have been faithful members and have been our main players this year.

However, it does not leave us empty-handed. We have many staying on who are faithful, loyal and ambitious, and several of them show really good promise for next year's competition.

Basketball

Our record this past season is nothing to be proud of, and although in every game there were five boys playing to win, there wasn't enough of the right initiative to defeat the opposing teams.

Despite the record, the team wishes to thank the student body for it's continuous and loyal support through-out the season.

HERE COME THE BRIDES

Three act Farce. By William D. Fisher. One easy interior. 4 m., 7 w.

"Here Come The Brides" is the sort of clean, clever, fast-moving farce that can be acted with greatest effectiveness by any amateur group. The majority of the characters are youthful, and all of them are a delight to play. The single interior setting and few properties are adaptable to any type of stage and equipment.

Jimmy Took and Bill Thompson are two young chaps living with Bill's Aunt Ellen. Jimmy's only relative is an Uncle Dan who is very wealthy and very generous. Through a misunderstanding Uncle Dan gets the impression that Jimmy is married. Just as Jimmy finds himself in a position where he needs to borrow money from his uncle, he receives a wire stating that Uncle Dan is arriving to meet the bride. Afraid that his uncle will think he deliberately lied to his
